

Jass

artist

Jass is a vocalist, poet, instrumentalist, and creative from Kansas City, MO. She has been writing, producing, and performing her original music since 2019 and has performed at many local and national festivals, opened for several touring artists, used her talents to support causes such as Big Brothers Big Sisters, Black Archives of Kansas City, KC Tenants, Kanbes Markets, and Midwest Music Foundation.

Social Media

10k
Supporters

Across Instagram, Facebook,
YouTube and Twitter.

Jass

instrumentalist

Jass plays the flute, saxophone, bass guitar, and keyboard.

performer

Jass has been the opening act for traveling artists; Thundercat, Bobby Valentino, Tink, Trina, Son Little, and The New Respects. She has also performed at the Essence Festival of Culture in New Orleans, Sofar Sounds in Kansas City, Chicago, and St. Louis and is invited to perform at the Taste of Soul Fest in Atlanta.

musician

Jass released At the Close of a Decade (2019), April Showers (2020), Send Interludes (2021), and OFFKey (2022). Several of her songs were featured on Peacock's television series, Bel-Air.