

Jass

artist

Jass is a vocalist, poet, instrumentalist, and creative from Kansas City, MO. She has been writing, producing, and performing her original music since 2019 and has performed at local, national, and international festivals, opened for several touring artists, and has used her talents to support causes such as Big Brothers Big Sisters, Black Archives of Kansas City, Planned Parenthood, KC Tenants, Kanbes Markets, and Midwest Music Foundation.

---

Social Media

13k
Supporters

Across Instagram, Facebook, YouTube and Twitter.

Jass

instrumentalist

Jass plays the flute, saxophone, bass guitar, and keyboard.

performer

Jass has opened for renowned artists including Thundercat, Bobby Valentino, Brownstone, Tink, Mereba, and Morris Day & The Time. Her performances have also taken her to major stages such as the Essence Festival of Culture in New Orleans, the Barrel & Flow Festival in Pittsburgh, and the Belfast International Music Festival in Ireland in collaboration with UNESCO, among others.

artist

Jass released At the Close of a Decade (2019), April Showers (2020 and 2025), Send Interludes (2021), and OFFKey (2022). Several of her songs from the projects were featured on Peacock's television series, Bel-Air.